

KATY MURPHY

Katy Murphy is an enthusiastic and highly practical presenter. Because of her extensive classroom experience as a third grade teacher and her ability to translate the best of the best research into strategies teachers can use in real classrooms, she is in much demand as a presenter.

Katy's seminars are enjoyable and fast-paced. Her experience, enthusiasm and motivating speaking style energize educators working with intermediate level students. You will leave with copious ideas you can use immediately to strengthen the reading and writing skills of each of your students.
