

Steve Seward

Steve is a highly motivated, experienced, and energetic presenter. He is an early childhood teacher who focuses on the foundation of literacy in the elementary classroom. His unique teaching practices and effective implementation of curriculum will have your head spinning with ideas.

Practicality, research, and classroom data are fundamental to all Steve's professional offerings. He believes that training should meet an identified need, should follow best practices, and be adaptable to a variety of thinking and learning levels. The information gained will have an immediate use within your instructional environment. Don't miss the opportunity to gain realistic strategies that will boost student confidence, excitement, and achievement!

Steve has been a classroom teacher for 8 years, and has taught both kindergarten and first grade. He has a master's degree in early childhood education and is working towards another degree in literacy and language instruction.